

THE LIBERTY OF LOGIC

SYLLABUS

CLASS	RELEASES	TITLE	DESCRIPTION
1	July 13	Introduction & Overview	The true nature of education and logic necessitate we approach both differently than we have.
2	July 15	Roadblocks to Learning Logic	Logic comes with pitfalls and dangers; we must watch our assumptions as well as our methods.
3	July 20	The Science of Correct Thinking	We must begin with grounding principles and definitions to do logic as citizens of the City of God.
4	July 22	The Art of Teaching Logic	As humans teaching humans, we must value formation over information and honor the true nature of learning.
5	July 27	Material Logic 1: Words	To communicate well we must understand the origin, purpose, & nature of language.
6	July 29	Material Logic 2: What Is Logic?	As a liberal art, logic is a kind of good.
7	August 3	Material Logic 3: The 3 Acts of the Mind	Though integrated and unified, we must notice the distinct acts of apprehension, judgment, and reasoning.
8	August 5	Material Logic 4A: Understanding Understanding	Philosophy is the most profound of human learning (Don't be scared of Aristotle).
9	August 10	Material Logic 4B: Aristotle's Categories	The categories help us to know what things are, in accidents and essence.
10	August 12	Material Logic 5: Form & Matter	Form and matter show us the big picture about created things.
11	August 17	Material Logic 6: The Concept	Universals are concepts which are neither particular nor changeable.
12	August 19	Material Logic 7: Simple Apprehension	The Hierarchy of Being allows us to perceive the true nature of a thing.
13	August 24	Material Logic 8: Predicates	A predicate can have five possible relationships with its subject.

CLASS	RELEASES	TITLE	DESCRIPTION
14	August 26	Material Logic 9: Knowing a Thing	Three tools help us know a thing: the art of the definition, the square of opposites, & the four causes.
15	August 31	The Method of Thomas Aquinas	Aquinas was quite possibly the greatest philosopher of history; his methods can and should still be applied to today's issues.
16	September 2	Conclusion	The darkness in the world today must be fought with the light of clearly communicated & lived out gospel truth and natural law.

LIVE ZOOM Q&A SESSIONS

Saturdays, 9:30am Pacific Time

July 18-September 5

Zoom links will be emailed & available on the course dashboard

Replays of the Q&A will be added to the course within 24 hours.

